I hear you're travelling to Mars
One way ticket
Giving your life to science

I'll be stuck here on Earth
Reading all your stupid emails Imagining how lonely you are While you'll be having the time of your life
Your entire life

As you can see, I'm jealous
And sad

But you're doing what you were meant to do

What more can I want for you?
